Navigating Global Business: Lessons from Latin America

A Three-Hour International Study Opportunity

Learn the global business economies in both Chile and Argentina through specialized company visits. We begin with a city tour of Santiago along with city explorations of both Valparaiso and Vina del Mar - iconic cities just outside of Santiago. Then, we fly to Buenos Aires, Argentina for more business visits and cultural engagements.

This course will cover relevant aspects of management in an intercultural context, treating topics normally covered in any management class while including international complications. Special attention will be paid to the impact of culture on planning, organizing, staffing, and communicating. Students should acquire basic skills to help them deal with people from different cultural backgrounds (clients, customers, suppliers, subordinates, bosses) and will learn through a limited number of cases, and real-world examples.

Inclusions:

- International Air
- Ground Transportation
- Intra-City Flight
- 9 Nights Hotels
- 9 Breakfasts
- 4 Dinners
- Admission Fees
